

Finished Treatment? What's Next?

Join Cherry Aslarona, M.A., AMFT as she discusses practical tools and resources to move forward after cancer in a healthy way.

For more information on her background, see back of flyer.

This two-hour survivorship seminar is for people who have completed active treatment and are interested in processing the emotional impact of their cancer experience. The approach is realistic, honest, and insightful.

Date: Wednesday, April 17, 2019 Time: 6:30pm-8:30pm

Location: Cancer CAREpoint Resource Center
2505 Samaritan Drive, Suite 402, San Jose, CA 95124

Space is limited and advanced registration is required. Please register by contacting Cherry Aslarona, Survivorship Program Coordinator at 408.402.6612 or email cherry@cancercarepoint.org.

Cherry Aslarona, M.A., AMFT is the Survivorship Program Coordinator at Cancer CAREpoint. She received a Bachelor in Psychology from Chapman University and a Master in Counseling Psychology with emphasis in Marriage & Family Therapy from Palo Alto University. She started her career as a mental health specialist working in trauma and serving those within the foster care system and juvenile probation system. Over the past 6 years, she has provided psychotherapy, counseling, and psycho-education to children, teens, and families in community based mental health settings and in schools. As a cancer survivor, Cherry was looking for an organization where she could serve others impacted by cancer. “I dreamed about starting an organization like Cancer CAREpoint, so I was thrilled when I discovered that it existed and that I can be a part of the team.” As the Survivorship Program Coordinator, Cherry is very honored to be a part of the Cancer CAREpoint team and support those who have been affected by cancer.