

SURVIVORSHIP RESOURCE LIST

A combination of local and national organizations that are trusted resources for cancer survivors, family members and caregivers are listed below. Local organizations are a great place to start to get answers to specific questions and learn about additional resources.

LOCAL ORGANIZATIONS

Bay Area Cancer Connections

Bay Area Cancer Connections supports anyone affected by breast or ovarian cancer with personalized services that inform and empower.

<https://www.bayareacancer.org>

Cancer CAREpoint

Cancer CAREpoint believes no one should have to face cancer alone. Our mission is to transform support for anyone impacted by cancer in Silicon Valley through personalized, one on one CARE - Counseling, Assistance, Resources & Education, by providing non-medical support services to anyone impacted by cancer (cancer patients, survivors, family members, and caregivers) at no cost, no matter their cancer type, where they receive medical care or their insurance status.

<https://www.cancercarepoint.org> or call 408.402.6611.

Cancer Support Community San Francisco Bay Area

For over 30 years, Cancer Support Community SF Bay Area has been providing free comprehensive integrative care — including counseling, support groups, nutrition, exercise and patient education programs — for people with cancer and their families or caregivers. Our services enable cancer patients to partner with their treatment team to manage their treatment and recovery most effectively, increase their chances for survival, reduce their chances of recurrence, and provide for the highest possible quality of life. Services are also provided in Spanish.

For more information, visit www.cancersupport.net or call 925.933.0107

HERS Breast Cancer Foundation

The mission of the HERS Breast Cancer Foundation is to support all individuals healing from breast cancer by providing post-surgical products and services regardless of financial status.

We provide quality products and emotional support. Our goal is to empower and care for each client as a whole person.

<https://hersbreastcancerfoundation.org>

Stanford University Cancer Survivorship Program

Stanford University offers resources and information for all cancer survivors no matter where treatment is received.

<https://med.stanford.edu/aftercancer.html>

Women's Cancer Resource Center

The Women's Cancer Resource Center improves equitable access to cancer information, support and care. We help people with cancer navigate through the often-overwhelming health care system so that you can get the appropriate care and treatment you need. All of our programs and services are free.

<https://www.wcrc.org>

NATIONAL ORGANIZATIONS

American Cancer Society (ACS) National Cancer Survivorship Resource Center

<https://www.cancer.org/health-care-professionals/national-cancer-survivorship-resource-center.html>

American Society of Clinical Oncology (ACOS) Survivorship Resources

<https://www.cancer.net/survivorship/survivorship-resources>

Association of Community Cancer Centers (ACCC) Survivorship Resources

<https://www.accc-cancer.org/projects/supportive-care-resource-hub/survivorship-resources>

Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) Cancer Survivors

<https://www.cdc.gov/cancer/survivors/index.htm>

National Cancer Institute (NCI) Survivors and Caregivers

<https://cancercontrol.cancer.gov/ocs/resources/survivors>

National Coalition for Cancer Survivorship (NCCS)

<https://canceradvocacy.org/resources/>

Susan G Komen Survivorship Resources

<https://www.komen.org/breast-cancer/survivorship/>

Triage Cancer Education on practical and legal issues that arise after a cancer diagnosis

<https://triagecancer.org/>

MATERIALS

National Cancer Institute (NCI)

Facing Forward: Life After Cancer Treatment: a downloadable booklet

<https://www.cancer.gov/publications/patient-education/facing-forward>

ABOUT US

The Cancer Survivorship Coalition of the Bay Area is a grassroots partnership of organizations and individuals whose goal is to develop community-based solutions to address the gaps in supportive care for cancer survivors and their families/caregivers. For more information, email CancerSurvivorshipBayArea@gmail.com.