“prost” to begin the activities. Food? German brats and spaetzle will be provided by Reverence Catering. For entertainment there will be authentic German music and games including a beer pong tournament. And you can buy a key to unlock a prize “treasure chest.” KCAT offers programming produced by youth, teens and adults ages 55 and older. www.keat.org

The Cancer CAREpoint Garden Party was a resounding success and raised over $1 million for cancer care. The organization is dedicated to providing support for cancer patients, families and caregivers in Silicon Valley through personalized, one-on-one counseling, assisstance, resources and education.

State Sen. Dave Cortese drove his bright red 1950s-era Chevy pick-up to present local Realtor Tiger Teerlink with a California State Senate Certificate of Recognition for the Cool Car Show Teerlink organizes every year. The show is sponsored by the Saratoga Chamber of Commerce and the Cool Car Club of Saratoga, Los Gatos and Campbell.

The grand opening of Power4Pilates in Los Gatos was a cut above. As Chamber of Commerce Executive Director Catherine Sommers said, “This may have been the largest and happiest ribbon cutting we’ve had.”

Friends and clients gathered for the event to open the Pilates studio located in Los Gatos Square, 15466 Los Gatos Blvd, suite 217. Jennifer Gaines and Johnny “JJ” Jackson offer 13 classes a day, seven days a week. <https://www.power4pilates.com>

Also new in town is Design by Mish Home Furnishings, 143A E. Main St., 408-458-6966. Owner and designer Mish Chadwick comes to Los Gatos from Australia, where Home Beautiful magazine dubbed one of her designs the “Most Beautiful Room” for 2013. She offers home design, signature furniture and vintage finds.

Los Gatos is known far and wide. While visiting the American Cemetery on the Landing Beaches in Normandy, France this summer, my tour bus seatmate Arden Taylor told me he frequents the Black Watch and loves their kamikazes. By the way, the Black Watch is the oldest watering hole in town. 141 N Santa Cruz Ave., 408-354-2200

Screen on the Green

It’s time to bust out the bug spray and picnic blankets — the Town of Los Gatos is screening the Disney animated movie “Encanto” today as part of its Screen on the Green series at Oak Meadow Park. The free event begins with kid-friendly activities at 6 p.m., followed by the movie around 7:15 p.m. Attendees can bring their own snacks and drinks, or they can purchase items from the Billy Jones Wildcat Railroad concession area.

For more information, visit <https://www.losgatosca.gov/342/Screen-on-the-Green>.

Discover savings

Above-the-knee hemlines didn’t reach mini heights until a year after the American Cancer Society opened its first Discovery Shop in 1965. Fashions may have changed, but after 57 years every purchase of sustainable and upcycled merchandise helps support the American Cancer Society.

Discovery Shop Los Gatos, 39 E. Main St., is celebrating this milestone Saturday with 25% off storewide. For hours and more information, call 408-354-5917.

Artists speak ‘Unarmed Truth’

New Museum Los Gatos is calling on local high school students to participate in its ArtNow 2023 competition and exhibition. The theme of the exhibition is “Unarmed Truth,” and participants are asked to submit original artwork—a painting, drawing, mixed media piece, print, sculpture, photograph or work of digital art—that represents a truth, either personal or universal.

All Santa Clara County high school students are eligible to participate. Students can submit work Oct. 7-Jan. 29. The exhibition will be on display at the museum March 31-June 25, 2023. The museum will offer $16,000 in scholarship funds to the winners.

For more information on how to submit, visit numulogatos.org/artnow.
