

Safe Shopping

Some stores have started dedicating time for senior shoppers. Below is a list of known locations but things are changing frequently so please verify this information before heading out!

- Nob Hill & Raleys: Starting March 21st offering a discounted bag of grocery essentials for seniors every day for $20 (plus a $35 option with ready-to-eat meal). The bags are available for pick-up curbside, or you can send a text to have the bag delivered right to your car.
- Zanottos: Willow Glen, Rose Garden and Sunnyvale have senior hours from 8-9am.
- Albertsons: Two hours from 7 a.m. to 9 a.m. on Tuesdays and Thursdays for senior customers and at-risk guests that include pregnant women and immunocompromised persons.
- Safeway: Senior customers and at-risk guests will have special shopping hours at Safeway stores between 7 a.m. to 9 a.m. on Tuesdays and Thursdays.
- Lunardi's: Senior citizens (65 & Older) and those with disabilities are welcome to shop on TUESDAYS & THURSDAYS between the hours of 7am-8am which will go into effect Tuesday March 24th until further notice. We will continue to honor the 5% senior discount on these 2 days. All stores will close at 7pm daily.
- 99 Ranch Market: Asian foods supermarket with first hour of business (store hours vary) reserved for 60+, expectant mothers, people with disabilities and those with compromised immune systems (Find a store near you). Seniors only shop 8-9 am daily in South Bay area, except Milpitas 8:30-9:30 am. – Also Daly City, Richmond, Concord, Foster City, Pleasanton, San Jose and many more locations.
- Target: Senior citizens and people with underlying health concerns can shop at Target stores nationwide every Wednesday starting at 8 a.m. All Target stores across the country will close at 9 p.m. to restock their shelves.
- Whole Foods: Starting March 18, customers 60 years of age or older can shop at Whole Foods at 8 a.m. – one hour early. Some stores will close up to two hours earlier.
- Walmart: From March 24 through April 28, Walmart's 5,000-plus U.S. stores will host an hour-long senior shopping event every Tuesday for customers 60 and older, which will start one hour before stores open. Stores will be open from 7 a.m. to 8:30 p.m. local time. Stores that open later than 7 a.m. will continue their regular starting hours.
- Dollar General: Dollar General designated the first hour at its more than 16,000 stores in 44 states as open daily to senior shoppers including Bay Area stores in Vallejo, Concord, Brentwood, Antioch.
- Lucky – Save Mart, FoodMaxx and Lucky stores have set aside every Tuesday and Thursday from 6 am to 9 a.m. for higher risk populations to shop. The company is asking other guests to allow seniors and vulnerable populations, such as pregnant women and those with compromised immune systems, primary access to our stores during these times.
- BONUS: Free Pizza for Seniors – While not a super market, Tony & Alba's pizza in San Jose deserves a special shout-out free with a free delivery of pizza and salad, enough to serve 2, to seniors (age 70 or older) within their delivery zone.

Food for pick-up

Thanks to the generosity of Flights Restaurant and the Los Gatos Chamber of Commerce fundraising, clients can receive a hot meal at no cost. Go to Flights Restaurant, 165 Los Gatos Saratoga Rd Los Gatos, CA 95030 between 4:00-8:00 pm for pickup. When you arrive, call 408-354-3434, and tell them that you are here for a food pick-up, referred by Cancer CAREpoint. The food will be brought out to your car. If you need the food but can't pick it up, contact us at info@cancercarepoint.org, and we will work with you to arrange delivery.
